MISSION STATEMENT

We the people of San Antonio parish strive to be a community of faith, hope, and love. We find our identity and mission in Jesus Christ and His Gospel. We celebrate our life as Catholic Christians in word, worship, and service. By recognizing our baptism, we accept our call to personal renewal and reach out with the gospel message to families and individuals, extending an invitation to fellowship with us.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OUR FATHER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

A middle-aged woman sat on the couch in my parish office and recounted to me a shocking list of terrible calamities in her life: addictions, terminal illnesses, financial loss, broken relationships, and so on. She smiled as she did so. "Please forgive me," I asked, "but you seem to be smiling as you share this." She said, "Father John, I am totally overwhelmed. But I'm smiling because I just can't wait to see what good things God does with this mess." She expected God would manifest His glory when she most needed it.

This week in the Gospel, God speaks from heaven for the third and final time in Jesus' earthly ministry. It's at a tough moment. Gentiles seek Jesus, who announces his terrible suffering, and then boldly prays, "Father, glorify your name!" John then writes: Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it and will glorify it again." Was the task of drawing the whole non-Jewish world to himself overwhelming? Or was it the terrible specter of crucifixion? Whatever it was, the crushing weight triggers his turning to the Father with an unshakeable expectation of divine glory to burst through. And indeed, it did on Easter Sunday. In our burdens, our greatest strength is to turn to God and boldly ask Him for His glory.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to list out everything which is a burden to you. Write it down. Then add these words: "Father, glorify Your name in all these things!" Put that paper in your pocket or purse when you come to Holy Week liturgies next week. You might smile at the most unlikely times.

— Father John Muir

Sunday Readings

Reading 1

Jer 31:31-34a

The days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers the day I took them by the hand to lead them forth from the land of Egypt; for they broke my covenant, and I had to show myself their master, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD. I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives how to know the LORD. All, from least to greatest, shall know me, says the LORD, for I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 51:3-4, 12-13, 14-15

R. (12a) Create a clean heart in me, O God.

Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness; in the greatness of your compassion wipe out my offense. Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me.

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

A clean heart create for me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me. Cast me not out from your presence, and your Holy Spirit take not from me.

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

Give me back the joy of your salvation, and a willing spirit sustain in me. I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners shall return to you.

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God

Reading 2

Heb 5:7-9

In the days when Christ Jesus was in the flesh, he offered prayers and supplications with loud cries and tears to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered; and when he was made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

Thanks be to God.

Verse Before the Gospel

Jn 12:26

Whoever serves me must follow me, says the Lord; and where I am, there also will my servant be.

Gospel

Jn 12:20-33

Some Greeks who had come to worship at the Passover Feast came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me. I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it and will glorify it again." The crowd there heard it and said it was thunder; but others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come for my sake but for yours. Now is the time of judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself." He said this indicating the kind of death he would die.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

WELCOME OUR NEW DEACON

What a blessing it is for me to be assigned to San Antonio de Padua Parish. My wife Kathleen and I have been married for 31 years and we have two children. Our son Cody lives in Camarillo and is attending St. John Seminary. Our daughter Katie is a sophomore at Franciscan University studying Marketing and Theology. I work for the Auto Club of Southern California and the organization has provided us with many opportunities to move throughout this beautiful country. Most recently, we were living in Pittsburgh, and in November 2023 my wife and I moved back to our hometown in Yorba Linda. The move has reunited Kathleen and I with our parents and extended family. In our history with the Catholic church we have enjoyed active involvement in marriage enrichment ministry, youth ministry, meal making for the less fortunate, bible studies, retreats, Eucharist to the homebound and small faith sharing groups. A fun Southern California fact about Kathleen and me is that we began dating when we were "Us in the Son" counselors, at St. Martin's in Yorba Linda. We are excited to be joining this vibrant parish family and look forward to meeting everyone.

In Christ's Peace, Deacon Brett Schurter

FIRST RECONCILIATION

Congratulations to our second year Religious Education students who received the beautiful sacrament of First Reconciliation this past weekend. The atmosphere was faith enriched as the children anxiously awaited their turn to speak with the priests, with a little help from the Holy Spirit, rain, and wind! It was a breathtaking experience to see these young students passionate about receiving this special sacrament; with happy tears and smiles all around. Thank you to our catechists who helped prepare these students and thank you to the priests who came to support these children in their journey.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

St. Joseph, the Husband of Mary

March 19th is the feast of St. Joseph, the Husband of Mary. Not much information is available about Joseph in sacred scripture. There is not a single word of his recorded. He is described as a "righteous man" and was unwilling to submit Mary to shame. We know that in every instance recorded in scripture, when Joseph received divine revelation through a dream, he did not hesitate to follow those instructions. While we know very little about St. Joseph, the fact that he was chosen to be the husband, the guardian, and the protector of Mary, the immaculate and perfect tabernacle of the only begotten Son of God ... well, if we knew only that and nothing else, it would be enough to reverence and honor God's choice of Joseph as the foster father of Jesus and husband of Mary. Today, let us pray for all fathers; those who with their wife decide to adopt an older child, or a child with disabilities; those who with their wife choose to foster children who are so in need of stability and love. And finally, let us pray for those unmarried men, who when confronted with an unexpected pregnancy, make the often difficult choice to love, support and care for their child and the mother of that child. St. Joseph, husband of Mary and foster father of Jesus, pray for us, that we may be light and love to all such men.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

On the first Tuesday of the month, after the weekday 8:30am Mass, presiding clergy will provide the Anointing of the Sick for those who stay after Mass.

The next anointing will be after Mass on 4/02/2024.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Women's Tuesday morning Bible Study is held in the MPR upstairs in the Cook Education Building at the south end of campus. We meet at 9:15 and end at 11:00 every Tuesday. We will be beginning a new study from Liguori Publications Bible Study Series. The book is Acts of the Apostles which is the story of the early days of our church after the Ascension. As with most "early days" of a new movement, there is action, controversy and growing pains for St. Paul and the apostles to cope with. If you are coming for the first time we will help you to order a book. And, of course, bring your Bible, New American if you have that one. For questions contact facilitator, Jeanne Carden, through the office or go to the San Antonio website and select Ministries.

SAN ANTONIO HISTORY

Many have asked what is the meaning of the stained glass window above the altar, and why is it so modern and stylized?

First, it is important to realize that after Vatican II, the church recommended that windows above the altar should never be so mesmerizing that they draw more attention to the window during Mass than what is taking place on the altar. Therefore the designer of our window at San Antonio chose to do a stylized depiction of Jesus' resurrection into heaven. The following is the explanation that was given to our very first parishioners. Notice that the window is divided into nine sections. If you look closely at the top right section you can see five pieces of white glass that are shaped like the upward extended hand of Jesus. Next, notice the inverted U-shape design between the upper left and upper middle piece. This is meant to be the head of Jesus as he ascends. All the swirling different colored glass pieces (done in colors to co-ordinate with the décor of the rest of the church) are meant to be the clouds that began to cover the figure of Jesus as He ascended into heaven.

EUCCHARIST REVIVAL MINISTRY

Holy Thursday Visitation of Seven Churches

Join us in Adoration in Glynn Hall, after the 7 PM Holy Thursday Mass (March 28, 2024). Adoration will continue until 6 AM Friday morning; bring friends and family to visit six other participating churches.

The Diocese of Orange will be hosting the 3rd Annual Holy Thursday "Visitation of Seven Churches" tradition. Last year over 35+ parishes/community centers around our diocese participated and hundreds of faithful drove around the diocese to visit and spend time with the Lord.

Why we do this: Each visit calls on the faithful to reflect on the seven final places Jesus went from his arrest on Holy Thursday to his death on Good Friday. At each church, pilgrims kneel before the altar of repose, meditate on a scriptural excerpt, and offer prayers and adoration. The Seven Churches Visitation (or Pilgrimage) is credited as beginning in Rome with St. Philip Neri in the 1500s. Neri would lead groups of faithful to visit each of the seven basilicas of Rome on Holy Thursday night as a way of keeping watch with Christ as though at the Garden of Gethsemane before his passion.

San Antonio Showing of Passion of the Christ

The Eucharistic Revival Ministry is presenting Mel Gibson's production The Passion of the Christ on Palm Saturday Vigil, after the 5pm mass in Glynn Hall. The movie will begin at 6:30 PM and is rated "R" for the graphic portrayal of Jesus' passion. We encourage all to attend. Some refreshments will be available or bring your own.

When: Saturday, March 23

Time: 6:30 PM

Where: Glynn Hall

Admission: Free

See you there!
